

Wellbeing Matters

Connecting Youth Wellbeing in School,
Whānau and Community

Thursday 27 & Friday 28 April 2017

St Andrews College, Christchurch

Join us for two interactive and inspirational days

Build your knowledge and skills for youth wellbeing core to the work of ALL professionals

Introduction and Wellbeing Overview—Lucy Hone

Sharing Information—Privacy Commission

Understanding and Accepting Diversity—Terry Fleming

Wellbeing in Schools—Simon Denny

WORKSHOP TOPICS TO INCLUDE: Working with challenging and disengaged young people • The Auckland School Nurses Group (ASNG) model of supporting nurses working in schools • My health, my way - rangatahi self-determination • Playshop – Creativity and Wellbeing • Reframing borderline personality disorder • Young people and pornography • Kindness literacy • Embedding young peoples voices in the design of Oranga Tamariki • Enhancing wellbeing through nature and adventure • Overcoming Barriers to Connection: Communicating in Dire Circumstances • Alcohol, Sex and Hauora • Policy? Not the P-word! An interactive workshop that makes drug policy development easy to understand • Bounce's way to youth wellbeing • Boosting young people's access to creativity: making it happen

REGISTRATIONS ARE NOW OPEN

Early bird closes 28 February

REGISTER
HERE

One day
or two day
registrations
available

To view the full programme visit collaborative.org.nz